

Up at The O2 has implemented additional health and safety measures including:

- Plastic screening installed at reception desks and a cash-free site
- Social distancing modifications throughout the site from the briefing room, kitting areas and the retail store
- Hand sanitiser units installed throughout including on arrival, pre and post-climb
- Visitors required to wear their own suitable clothing as full body climb suits or gilets will not be provided, although climb shoes will be available
- You must wear socks otherwise you will not be able to climb. No refund or reschedule will be permitted.
- You are able to take a mobile phone or compact camera up to the roof but this must fit securely in a buttoned or zip pocket in your clothing
- Staff will be wearing face coverings and gloves; however, these are not mandatory for customers but can be worn if they wish to bring their own
- Tickets must be pre-booked and availability is limited
- Cashless transactions across the site
